COURSE DESCRIPTION

Collaboration between providers of conventional care and complementary therapies has gained popularity but there is a lack of documented best practices and models for delivering such care. The aim of this course is to discover and develop best practices for the implementation of integrative case management. The outcome is to develop a model that aims for a patient-centered, interdisciplinary, non-hierarchical mix of conventional and complementary medical solutions to individual case management of patients. This model of case management should include standard clinical practice and active partnership between a gate-keeping general practitioner and collaborating with a team of providers in a consensus case conference model of care. The idea is to develop an integrated case model which includes informal dialogue among course leaders, students and lecturers. This dialogue is fueled by some of the participants' international clinical experience of providing conventional care and oriental medical care, as well as evidence of increased utilization, and the documented desire for increased collaboration and research on the part of the patients.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Determine whether or not OM can be integrated for specific case treatments
- Discuss the careful documentation of OM treatments and results
- Analyze the strengths and limitations of OM and Western Medicine treatment plans
- Explain the value of OM to western medicine practitioners
- Develop models to integrate OM into a western treatment plan

CORRELATION OF THE CLASS TO THE DAOM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

ATTENDANCE POLICY

University policy requires that attendance is factored in as at least 10% of a student's final grade. Students with more than 2 unexcused absences will be considered to automatically fail a course, and 3 marks of tardiness will be counted as 1 absence.

Please reference the DAOM Catalog for more information regarding this policy.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty includes providing or receiving answers from other students during or after an examination, plagiarism, knowing use of illegally copied educational material in any format, using informational aids such as "crib sheets" or other types of notes during an examination (if not allowed), or anything else that might reasonably be construed as cheating. Students who are found to be academically dishonest will automatically receive an "F" in that particular course and are subject to dismissal or suspension for 1 quarter, and may be placed on administrative probation.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Dongguk University Los Angeles is committed to providing support services to achieve equal access to the education experience. The Student Services Coordinator is available to provide assistance for students who exhibit significant difficulties due to a disability. DULA will support students to understand his/her limited abilities and compensate for them with ADA accommodations and alternative resources as well. Registration for assistance from the Student Services Coordinator is on a voluntary, self-identifying basis. However, services are only available after a student has registered and presents current documentation of the disability from an appropriate specialist or physician. All information and documentation are confidential.

Please refer to the DAOM Catalog for more information regarding this policy and procedure.
