

	1/28-29 (Thur & Fri) PD 700 Advanced Research 1/30-31 (Sat & Sun) PD 800 Adv. Acupuncture Tech. 2/25-28 (Thur-Sun) PD 703 Integrative Practice 1 3/25-28 (Thur-Sun) PD 704 Integrative Practice 2 4/29-30 (Thur & Fri) PD 701 Integrative Diagnosis 5/1-2 (Sat & Sun) PD 710 Advanced Case Analysis & Clinical Research 5/27 (Thursday) PD 705 Collaborative Practice 5/28-29 (Fri & Sat) PD 801 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture: Head & neck 6/24 (Thur) PD 702 Integrative Community Health 6/25-26 (Fri & Sat) PD 802 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 2 7/29-30 (Thur & Fri) PD 805 CAM in Anti-Aging Application 7/31-8/1 (Sat & Sun) PD 803 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 3 8/26-27 (Thur & Fri) PD 720 Advanced Professional Development 8/28-29 (Sat & Sun) PD 804 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 4 10/28-29 (Thur & Fri) PD 700 Advance Research 10/30-31 (Sat & Sun) PD 800 Advanced Acupuncture Techniques 11/18-21 (Thur -Sun) PD 703 Integrative Practice 1 12/16-19 (Thur- Sun) PD 704 Integrative Practice 2
--	---

1/28 - 1/29 9am - 9pm	PD700 - Advanced Research (20 CEU Units) (Total 20 hours) - 10 hours per day Doctoral students obtain competencies on concepts of evidence-based medicine and evidence-informed practice as they relate to AOM clinical research.
----------------------------------	--

Main Instructors

- Seung Deok Lee
KMD, PhD, L.Ac.
- Yae Chang
DAOM, L.Ac., Dip.OM

With Special guest speakers

Tuition fee:

$200 per each 10-CEU courses

How to register:

Email: CEU@dula.edu

Call: (213) 487-0110 Ext. 401

DISCLAIMER:

- Dongguk University Los Angeles reserves the right to cancel CEU classes due to some unavoidable circumstances.
- The certificate will be Issued only upon the completion of 10 hours of CEU lecture.
- Cancellation and requests for refunds must be submitted In writing prior to the lecture for a refund. [a $50 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds]
- All refunds will be processed after the day of CEU.
- No refunds after CEU begins.

Contact Info

Jacy Davis LAc. Dipl.OM
CEU@dula.edu
 (213) 487-0110 Ext.401

440 Shatto Pl.
 Los Angeles, Ca. 90020
www.DULA.edu

	Additional topics include competencies in data collection, assessing and synthesizing information from research, as well as developing and modifying treatment plans and protocols based on research.
1/30 - 2/28 9am - 9pm	PD800 - Advanced Acupuncture Techniques (20 CEU units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day This course offers training in advanced acupuncture modalities, including Master Tung, scalp acupuncture, and selected Traditional Korean Medicine acupuncture techniques. Upon completion of this course, students will gain a deeper understanding of advanced acupuncture modalities as they relate to treatment options and patient care. Case studies in a variety of medical conditions and medical settings will also be introduced.
2/25 - 2/28 9am - 9pm	PD703 - Integrative Practice 1 (40 CEU Units) Total 40 hours - 10 hours per day Integrative Practice series presents system-based medicine, focusing on commonly treated disorders within the system. The courses will include competencies in interdisciplinary, integrative, and pragmatic approaches. For each system, anatomy, physiology, and pathophysiology of each system will be discussed as integrated western and eastern medicine perspective, as well as red flags. The principle of comprehensive diagnostic approach will be presented, followed by a discussion of treatment strategies and protocols including acupuncture treatments, herbal and nutritional treatments, as well as western medicine treatment options. Within each system, common disease will be presented more in detail. PD703: system-based medicine of neurology, cardiology and vascular, pulmonology, obstetrics and gynecology, urology and ENT.
3/25 - 3/28 9am - 9pm	PD704 - Integrative Practice 2 (40 CEU Units) Total 40 hours - 10 hours per day Integrative Practice series presents system-based medicine, focusing on commonly treated disorders within the system. The courses will include competencies in interdisciplinary, integrative, and pragmatic approaches. For each system, anatomy, physiology, and pathophysiology of each system will be discussed as integrated western and eastern medicine perspective, as well as red flags. The principle of comprehensive diagnostic approach will be presented, followed by a discussion of treatment strategies and protocols including acupuncture treatments, herbal and nutritional treatments, as well as western medicine

Main Instructors

- Seung Deok Lee
KMD, PhD, L.Ac.
- Yae Chang
DAOM, L.Ac., Dip.OM

With Special guest speakers

Tuition fee:

$200 per each 10-CEU courses

How to register:

Email: CEU@dula.edu

Call:(213) 487-0110 Ext. 401

DISCLAIMER:

- Dongguk University Los Angeles reserves the right to cancel CEU classes due to some unavoidable circumstances.
- The certificate will be Issued only upon the completion of 10 hours of CEU lecture.
- Cancellation and requests for refunds must be submitted In writing prior to the lecture for a refund. [a $50 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds]
- All refunds will be processed after the day of CEU.
- No refunds after CEU begins.

Contact Info

Jacy Davis LAc. Dipl.OM

CEU@dula.edu

(213) 487-0110 Ext.401

440 Shatto Pl.

Los Angeles, Ca. 90020

www.DULA.edu

	treatment options. Within each system, common disease will be presented more in detail. PD704: system-based medicine of endocrine and metabolic disorders, gastroenterology, hemato-oncology and immunology, dermatology and psychological disorders.
4/29 - 4/30 9am - 9pm	PD701 - Integrative Diagnosis (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day This course prepares students to integrate western diagnostic studies into their AOM clinical practice. The course will cover relevant laws and regulations that affect diagnostic procedures; indications, risks, and benefits of diagnostic procedures within the practitioner's scope of practice. The course also prepares students to obtain competencies in appropriate applications of diagnostic studies and tools, ability to assess written diagnostic reports, and effective communications regarding the results of diagnostic studies with other healthcare providers. Students also will be exposed to select advanced diagnostic machines from Korea.
5/1 - 5/2 9am - 9pm	PD710 - Advanced Cases Analysis and Clinical Research (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day This course is designed to develop advanced case analysis skills, including research methods necessary to understand, develop, and analyze clinical cases. Students will gain competency in both traditional and modern research material, biomedical research. Students will be developing and writing case studies and do formal presentations of their cases.
5/27 9am - 9pm	PD 705 - Collaborative Practice (10 CEU Units) Total 10 hours - 10 hours per day This course provides training in collaborative practice and communication training with other healthcare practitioners. Healthcare professionals from modalities other than oriental medicine will present topics related to their treatment modalities. Students will be able to discuss cases and other health modalities. Practitioners at the practicum sites include chiropractors, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, medical doctors, osteopathic doctors, naturopathic doctors, psychologists, and so forth.
5/28 - 5/29 9am - 9pm	PD 801 - Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture: Head and Neck (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day These courses comprise the program's pain management specialty, including the mechanism of pain and how acupuncture treatments may address pain management. Common disorders such as degenerative disorders, inflammatory conditions, paralysis, etc. will be covered in each region. These series courses are designed to progress through treatment of neuromusculoskeletal conditions related to different

Main Instructors

- Seung Deok Lee
KMD, PhD, L.Ac.
- Yae Chang
DAOM, L.Ac., Dip.OM

With Special guest speakers

Tuition fee:

$200 per each 10-CEU courses

How to register:

Email: CEU@dula.edu

Call:(213) 487-0110 Ext. 401

DISCLAIMER:

- Dongguk University Los Angeles reserves the right to cancel CEU classes due to some unavoidable circumstances.
- The certificate will be Issued only upon the completion of 10 hours of CEU lecture.
- Cancellation and requests for refunds must be submitted In writing prior to the lecture for a refund. [a $50 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds]
- All refunds will be processed after the day of CEU.
- No refunds after CEU begins.

Contact Info

Jacy Davis LAc. Dipl.OM

CEU@dula.edu

(213) 487-0110 Ext.401

440 Shatto Pl.

Los Angeles, Ca. 90020

www.DULA.edu

	regions of the body: Head and Neck, Trunk and Back, Upper and Lower Extremities. In each region, structural anatomy and physiology, differentiation of disorders, diagnostic procedures, prognosis as well as treatment plans will be discussed. Integration of modern and classical theories will also be discussed. PD801: Head and Neck
6/24 9am - 9pm	PD 702 - Integrative Community Health (10CEU Units) Total 10 hours This course emphasizes patient care and collaborative care systems, including a presentation of structures and processes of various healthcare systems, role and impact of AOM professions, US healthcare models, and appropriate collaborative interactions with other healthcare practitioners, and so forth. This course prepares students to participate actively in the healthcare system.
6/25 - 6/26 9am -9pm	PD 802 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 2: Trunk and Back (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day These courses comprise the program's pain management specialty, including the mechanism of pain and how acupuncture treatments may address pain management. Common disorders such as degenerative disorders, inflammatory conditions, paralysis, etc. will be covered in each region. These series courses are designed to progress through treatment of neuromusculoskeletal conditions related to different regions of the body: Head and Neck, Trunk and Back, Upper and Lower Extremities. In each region, structural anatomy and physiology, differentiation of disorders, diagnostic procedures, prognosis as well as treatment plans will be discussed. Integration of modern and classical theories will also be discussed. PD802: Trunk and Back
7/29 - 7/30 9am -9pm	PD 805 CAM in Anti-aging Application (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day The course concentrates on acupuncture and oriental medicine treatments related to anti-aging applications. This course will focus on applications of anti-aging acupuncture techniques, selection and usage of herbs and formulas, as well as nutrition and lifestyle modifications. The foundation behind the pathogenesis of aging and cellular decay and physiological dysfunction will also be addressed from oriental medicine and western conventional medicine perspectives.
7/31 - 8/1 9am - 9pm	PD 803 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 3: Upper Extremities (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day These courses comprise the program's pain management specialty, including the mechanism of pain and how acupuncture treatments may address pain management. Common disorders such as degenerative disorders, inflammatory conditions, paralysis, etc. will be

Main Instructors

- Seung Deok Lee
KMD, PhD, L.Ac.
- Yae Chang
DAOM, L.Ac., Dip.OM

With Special guest speakers

Tuition fee:

$200 per each 10-CEU courses

How to register:

Email: CEU@dula.edu

Call:(213) 487-0110 Ext. 401

DISCLAIMER:

- Dongguk University Los Angeles reserves the right to cancel CEU classes due to some unavoidable circumstances.
- The certificate will be Issued only upon the completion of 10 hours of CEU lecture.
- Cancellation and requests for refunds must be submitted In writing prior to the lecture for a refund. [a $50 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds]
- All refunds will be processed after the day of CEU.
- No refunds after CEU begins.

Contact Info

Jacy Davis LAc. Dipl.OM
CEU@dula.edu
(213) 487-0110 Ext.401

440 Shatto Pl.
Los Angeles, Ca. 90020
www.DULA.edu

	covered in each region. These series courses are designed to progress through treatment of neuromusculoskeletal conditions related to different regions of the body: Head and Neck, Trunk and Back, Upper and Lower Extremities. In each region, structural anatomy and physiology, differentiation of disorders, diagnostic procedures, prognosis as well as treatment plans will be discussed. Integration of modern and classical theories will also be discussed. PD803: Upper Extremities
8/26 - 8/27 9am - 9pm	PD 720 Advanced Professional Development (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day In this course, students obtain ethical, legal, and business skills to competently collaborate with other practitioners in an integrative, multi-modality settings. Students also gain competency in the broad scope of career and practice options in integrative medicine; as well as regarding professional development skills to ensure lifelong scholarly habits to support their patients appropriately. Discussions and presentations on patient education, community outreach, career development and collaborative care, such as public speaking, case presentations, report writing, creating and maintaining a referral network and inter-professional communication will be conducted in class.
8/28 - 8/29 9am - 9pm	PD 804 Neuromusculoskeletal Acupuncture 4: Lower Extremities (20 CEU Units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day These courses comprise the program's pain management specialty, including the mechanism of pain and how acupuncture treatments may address pain management. Common disorders such as degenerative disorders, inflammatory conditions, paralysis, etc. will be covered in each region. These series courses are designed to progress through treatment of neuromusculoskeletal conditions related to different regions of the body: Head and Neck, Trunk and Back, Upper and Lower Extremities. In each region, structural anatomy and physiology, differentiation of disorders, diagnostic procedures, prognosis as well as treatment plans will be discussed. Integration of modern and classical theories will also be discussed. PD804: Lower Extremities
10/28-10/29 9am-9pm	PD700 - Advanced Research (20 CEU Units) (Total 20 hours) - 10 hours per day Doctoral students obtain competencies on concepts of evidence-based medicine and evidence-informed practice as they relate to AOM clinical research. Additional topics include competencies in data collection, assessing and synthesizing information from research, as well as developing and modifying treatment plans and protocols based on research.

Main Instructors

- Seung Deok Lee
KMD, PhD, L.Ac.
- Yae Chang
DAOM, L.Ac., Dip.OM

With Special guest speakers

Tuition fee:

$200 per each 10-CEU courses

How to register:

Email: CEU@dula.edu

Call:(213) 487-0110 Ext. 401

DISCLAIMER:

- Dongguk University Los Angeles reserves the right to cancel CEU classes due to some unavoidable circumstances.
- The certificate will be Issued only upon the completion of 10 hours of CEU lecture.
- Cancellation and requests for refunds must be submitted In writing prior to the lecture for a refund. [a $50 processing fee will be deducted from all refunds]
- All refunds will be processed after the day of CEU.
- No refunds after CEU begins.

Contact Info

Jacy Davis LAc. Dipl.OM
CEU@dula.edu
(213) 487-0110 Ext.401

440 Shatto Pl.
Los Angeles, Ca. 90020
www.DULA.edu

10/30-10/31 9am-9pm	PD800 - Advanced Acupuncture Techniques (20 CEU units) Total 20 hours - 10 hours per day This course offers training in advanced acupuncture modalities, including Master Tung, scalp acupuncture, and selected Traditional Korean Medicine acupuncture techniques. Upon completion of this course, students will gain a deeper understanding of advanced acupuncture modalities as they relate to treatment options and patient care. Case studies in a variety of medical conditions and medical settings will also be introduced.
11/18-11/21 9am to 9pm	PD703 - Integrative Practice 1 (40 CEU Units) Total 40 hours - 10 hours per day Integrative Practice series presents system-based medicine, focusing on commonly treated disorders within the system. The courses will include competencies in interdisciplinary, integrative, and pragmatic approaches. For each system, anatomy, physiology, and pathophysiology of each system will be discussed as integrated western and eastern medicine perspective, as well as red flags. The principle of comprehensive diagnostic approach will be presented, followed by a discussion of treatment strategies and protocols including acupuncture treatments, herbal and nutritional treatments, as well as western medicine treatment options. Within each system, common disease will be presented more in detail. PD703: system-based medicine of neurology, cardiology and vascular, pulmonology, obstetrics and gynecology, urology and ENT.
12/16-12/19 9am to 9pm	PD704 - Integrative Practice 2 (40 CEU Units) Total 40 hours - 10 hours per day Integrative Practice series presents system-based medicine, focusing on commonly treated disorders within the system. The courses will include competencies in interdisciplinary, integrative, and pragmatic approaches. For each system, anatomy, physiology, and pathophysiology of each system will be discussed as integrated western and eastern medicine perspective, as well as red flags. The principle of comprehensive diagnostic approach will be presented, followed by a discussion of treatment strategies and protocols including acupuncture treatments, herbal and nutritional treatments, as well as western medicine treatment options. Within each system, common disease will be presented more in detail. PD704: system-based medicine of endocrine and metabolic disorders, gastroenterology, hemato-oncology and immunology, dermatology and psychological disorders.

Alumni of DULA
Email
CEU@dula.edu for special savings